Good morning Sadie: I would have to check with Valois on this.

Valois' trip to Dewey Burdock in SD was rescheduled from this week to next week to accommodate Maple Barnard's schedule. Valois will be assisting Maple in her Preliminary Assessment of the abandoned mine sites in the area (under CERCLA). This work will inform our own cumulative effects analysis required for the Class III and V area permits which will also help us address some Tribal concern's raised during our educational webinars.

I understand from Callie we have two travelers next week. Minnie and Valois. Can these trips be rescheduled? Or do they have to happen on October 1st?
